FOOD BANK DAY

Wednesday 8 June

Once again we are organising a Food Bank Day in support of our local branch which is housed at St Andrews Church in Kinson.

The Food Bank is a valuable resource and it has helped several of our families and many members of our local community in times of crisis.

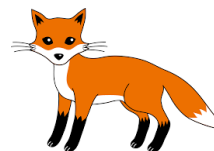

Any items of packaged food i.e. tinned fruit, meat, vegetables and soups; bottled squash; cartons of long life milk; jars of jam, sauces and coffee; boxes and packets of cereals, tea, sugar, pasta and rice; toiletries – soap, toothpaste and deodorant’s etc. to name but a few would all be very welcome.

This will be a non-uniform day (not fancy dress) and the price of admission will be one or more items for the Food Bank.

If you would like to know more about the Food Bank please ask to speak to Mrs Page.

Thank you for your support.
